(8:11p) Aaron moves to adopt the Agenda. Motion is seconded, and passes without objection.

Chair’s Report: (8:12p) The Mail Chimp account is working. We have received a few responses to our e-mail and donations too. We are consolidating the lists to stay below our 2500 e-mails cap. No need to upgrade our service level further at this time. Website is up and running. Would like the Secretary to get his bio and picture to John Due for posting to the website. Region meetup information should be sent so we can post to social media. Chair asks about having a meeting on November 9th to meet a Libertarian Presidential candidate, Mike ter Maat. His campaign website is miketermaat.com. Chair and others are planning to attend the first live LA County Board of Supervisors meeting since the start of the COVID 19 issues.

Vice Chair’s Report: (8:20p) Working on Mail Chimp application for sending e-mails and getting set up to better accept donations through our website.

Secretary's Report and Adoption of Minutes: (8:22p) August minutes were reviewed and approved without objection.

REGION REPORTS: (8:23p)

Region 61 Last months meeting was held in Valencia. Tomorrow's meeting will be held in Burbank.

Region 62 Held our meeting on the second Monday due to Labor Day being the first Monday in September. Have been holding meeting on the first Monday at 7:00 pm. The problem now is that Dinah's is now closing at 8:00 pm. May need to seek new venue.

Region 64 Held their September meeting at The Heights Deli & Bottle Shop in Lincoln Heights. This has been their regular location for meetings.

Region 65 For October they will hold Officer elections and vote on Bylaw amendments. The Region's website is region65.org

Region 66 September's discussion was Libertarianism compared to national conservatism. October's meeting will be a discussion of the Propositions, Measures and elected offices on the November ballot. The Region does not hold a December meeting. The Region's website is lplac66.wordpress.com/

Region 63 (reported after Alex joined) Libertarian ideas were discussed at our September 14th (second Wednesday monthly meeting).

Treasurer's Report: (8:43p) Balance is $10,139.39. We paid $1,905 in fines to FPPC.

Propositions: (8:47p) Discussion was focused on the Cal Matters website while members discussed the various state-wide propositions and the LA County elections. It was decided to have a meeting for those who wanted to discuss the propositions before moving to a vote on our recommendations to the voters.

New Business: (9:03p) Jay Jones indicates he is have some e-mail difficulty with some of his accounts on a new computer.

Public Comment: (9:04p)

Adjourn: (9:05p) Motion is made to adjourn by Alex. Motion is seconded. Motion passes without objection.
