Two Electronic Motions passed in April by the LPLAC Executive Committee

The Chair moves that we adopt the following resolution:

Whereas the Libertarian Party of Los Angeles County believes that the implementation or other requirement of a “vaccine passport” would be an authoritarian and tyrannical aggression against the sovereignty and bodily autonomy and an infringement of the rights of individuals by governments and corporations working in collaboration;

Therefore, the Libertarian Party of Los Angeles County:

Urges all city, county, and state governments and representatives to refuse to implement or allow “vaccine passports” to be implemented in their districts or jurisdictions;

Urges all state and county Libertarian Party affiliates to fight against the implementation of “vaccine passports” in Los Angeles County;

Urges all individuals living in Los Angeles to resist and refuse the implementation of “vaccine passports” in Los Angeles County;

Urges all individuals living in Los Angeles to pressure local and state governments and representatives to stop the implementation of “vaccine passports” in Los Angeles County.

The ten day voting period began on April 3rd at 9:22 am, and ran through 9:22 am on April 13, 2021.
